Lindsey Bryant

Mrs Lindsey Bryant is the Deputy Head Pastoral at Queen Anne's School in Caversham. She supports the school to provide a holistic education equipping pupils with emotional resilience to succeed academically. She has led the development of wellbeing tracking and intervention for pupils in day and boarding. She endeavours to enable all pupils to leave Queen Anne's secure in their well-being, happy and ready to face their next steps.

Simon Hill

Mr Simon Hill achieved a BA (Hons) Geography at Kings College London University and then went on to gain a PGCE at the Institute of Education, London. He started his career as a teacher of geography at King Edward's school, Surrey. He then moved to Glenalmond College, Perth as Senior housemaster. In 2010, Simon Hill became Director of Boarding at Brisbane Grammar School, Queensland before joining Christ College as Deputy Head (Pastoral) in 2016.

Henry Price

Mr Henry Price is in his second year as Headmaster of Oakham School, after five years as Headmaster of Wellington School in Somerset. He has nearly twenty-five years of experience in UK boarding schools, including seven as a Housemaster at Rugby School. He is a strong believer in the social and academic benefits of boarding as part of an all-round education. He is married to Mary and has four children.

Arabella Stuart

Mrs Arabella Stuart joined Sevenoaks School in Kent as a Teacher of Biology in 1987. She has also taught Physics, Chemistry, German, RS and the Theory of Knowledge. She was Housemistress of a Boarding House. On moving out of the Boarding House, Arabella Stuart became of Sixth Form Admissions at Sevenoaks. In 2008 she was Head promoted to the role of Director of Admissions involving responsibility for admissions at all entry points.
