

BARBARA GLASMACHER

INTERNATIONALE SCHULBERATUNG

Webinarreihe "4 Schools - 1 Topic" am Samstag, den 20.02.2021 von 10:30 bis 11:30 Uhr

Thema: Brexit – What will change for EU boarders?

Unsere Gäste:

Lesley Brookes

Mrs Lesley Brookes is a qualified accountant and after a successful career at HSBC for fifteen years in a number of commercial finance roles she changed career in 2003 to become the bursar of Winterfold House School, and she is now the Bursar of Bromsgrove School. Her passion at Bromsgrove School has been managing the extensive capital investment programme over the last ten years which has involved building and renovating many of the boarding houses and building new Sports and Arts facilities.

<https://www.bromsgrove-school.co.uk/>

James Hills

Mr James Hills is Director of Admissions at Clifton College and was formerly a Housemaster and Director of Music for ten years prior to that. He started his teaching career as Organist at Uppingham School, in Rutland. As an undergraduate he studied music at Cambridge University and won an organ scholarship to Selwyn College. He subsequently moved to London where he studied organ with Nicholas Kynaston at Trinity College of Music.

<https://www.cliftoncollege.com/>

Michele Metcalfe

After 20 years in a variety of business sectors in companies such as Santander, British Airways, and The Royal Bank of Scotland, in 2008, Mrs Michele Metcalfe took up the position of Registrar at Rossall School where she helped to increase the school roll by 180 pupils in 3 years. In 2016, she moved to the post of Registrar, and Head of Marketing and Admissions at Haileybury College.

<https://www.haileybury.com/>

Richard Notman

Mr Richard Notman graduated with first class honours after studying Finance and Statistics at Birmingham University. After securing his PGCE at the University of Manchester, he spent the next eight years in inner-city comprehensive schools, before moving into the independent sector as Head of Mathematics at Alderley Edge School for Girls. Following a first Headship at Cundall Manor School in Yorkshire, he became the Headmaster of Stover School in 2014; in his 7 years of leadership there, the school has grown by over 60%, with academic outcomes at GCSE and A level improving by over 25%.

<https://www.stover.co.uk/>

