Mrs Judith Fremont-Barnes

Judith Fremont-Barnes MA (MEd) has been Head of Milton Abbey School since 2018. Previously she was Head of the Duke of Kent School in Surrey. Her first teaching post at JAGS after her English degree at Oxford was the start of a love affair with teaching. Her career has included positions at Radley, King Edward VI Southampton and More House, a boys' Specific Learning Difficulty (SpLD) school in the home counties. She also spent five years in Japan as a university lecturer.

Mr Julian Johnson-Munday

Julian Johnson-Munday has been Headmaster of Culford School since 2004. He obtained his MA in English at Leicester University followed by a MBA at Durham. Mr Johnson-Munday toyed with joining the advertising industry but ended up at Cranleigh School, where he became attached to teaching. He moved on to be a housemaster, went to London (Mill Hill) but decided a small rural boarding school 'where I knew all the children' was for him.
